Dr Pradip Kumar Singha Dev addressing the Students and Faculty Members

The 28th Lecture of Saumyendra Nath Brahmachary Distinguished Lecture Series was organised by Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research, Deoghar on 21st December 2024, on the topic “The Scope in Art and Cultural Activities”, by Dr Pradip Kumar Singha Dev, President, VECSO, India & Secretary, Y. M. Trust, H.O.: Shrikrishnapuri, B. Deoghar, Deoghar, Jharkhand, India

Dr. Pradip Kumar Singha Deo began his lecture by engaging the students with questions about their interests, hobbies, and passions. He emphasized the importance of developing good handwriting along with analytical essay writing skills. He described the opportunities available in Fine Arts, Performing Arts, and Creative Writing, including essay writing competitions on various platforms at the district, state, national, and international levels. He also discussed pursuing diplomas and degrees in Fine Arts and Performing Arts. In response to a question, he spoke about the role of the arts in the development and propagation of culture. He motivated the aspiring teachers to participate in various competitions and strive for prizes in categories such as painting, music, dance, drama, and essay and book writing.

The lecture was highly informative as well as interactive as it was in face-to-face mode and was attended by Teachers and Students of Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research. The programme was successfully anchored by Sneha Jha and Neha Jha, student teachers, B.Ed. 2024-26, and coordinated by Shri Kumud Ranjan Jha, Coordinator, DLS Programme.
