DIPSER: A Profile

ABOUT US:

Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research (DIPSER) is a prominent and leading academic institution dedicated to Teachers' Education, situated in Deoghar, Jharkhand, India. DIPSER is the only professional college exclusively for women affiliated with Sido Kanhu Murmu University.

DIPSER was established in 2001 by Shrimat Saumyendra Nath Brahmachary, a distinguished individual with a notable background. He is a Gold Medalist from IIT Kharagpur (batch of 1968) and is recognized as an eminent Thought Leader and former Acharya of Dev Sangha Ashram, Deoghar. Operating as a self-financing institution, DIPSER is officially affiliated with Sido Kanhu Murmu University, Dumka.

The institute offers three full-time professional courses, all of which are recognized by the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE):

- Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.)
- Master of Education (M.Ed.)
- Diploma in Elementary Education (D.El.Ed.)

For its B.Ed. and M.Ed. programs, DIPSER is affiliated to Sido Kanhu Murmu University, Dumka. The D.El.Ed. course, is affiliated with the Jharkhand Academic Council, Ranchi

DIPSER has garnered several significant recognitions and accreditations:

- In June 2009, the college was included in the list of colleges prepared under Section 2 (f) of the UGC Act, 1965, specifically under the category of "Non-government colleges teaching up to post graduate degree."
- The college was granted linguistic minority status in December 2010 by the government of Jharkhand.
- Most recently, DIPSER was declared as accredited at the B level by the NAAC on January 17, 2023.

The management of DIPSER is overseen by a highly qualified and experienced body of committed educationists, artists, professionals, industrialists, and businessmen. These individuals are leaders in their respective fields, providing essential stewardship for the successful administration and development of the institution.
