Dr. Dhananjay Kumar Mishra addressing the students and the faculty members

The 36th Lecture of Saumyendra Nath Brahmachary Distinguished Lecture Series was organised by Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research, Deoghar on 28th August 2025, on the topic “Yuva Bharat aur Rashtriya Seva Yojna” by Dr. Dhananjay Kumar Mishra, NSS Coordinator, S.K.M. University, Dumka, Jharkhand, India.

Dr. Mishra began his lecture with the concept of NSS (National Service Scheme) or Rashtriya Seva Yojna. He discussed in detail the objectives, functions and participation of youths under NSS. He elaborated that any youth (male/female) who is enrolled in an educational institution where NSS unit is functioning can enrol himself / herself in the NSS Portal (Ministry of Sports and Youth Affairs) through the unit. NSS volunteers render their services in all spheres of life and society. They are involved in the service to the nation and people in the hour of crisis like natural disasters such as flood, cloud bursts, earthquakes and man-made disasters such as accidents etc. the youth who enrolls himself / herself are trained in different camps for different purposes like spreading awareness among masses, helping people in the hour of crisis, adventurous activities like mountaineering, tracking etc. The main contribution of NSS to the service of nation is to spread awareness among village masses regarding literacy, health, cleanliness, plantation, beti bachao beti padhao etc.

The lecture was highly informative as well as interactive as it was in face-to-face mode and was attended by Teachers and Students of Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research. The programme was successfully anchored by Anjali Kumari, a student teacher, D. El. Ed. 2025-27, and was coordinated by Shri Kumud Ranjan Jha, Coordinator, DLS Programme.
