

Saamyendra Nath Brahmachary Distinguished Lecture Series: 37th Lecture

Lecture by Prof. (Dr.) Abhijit Kumar Pal,

Professor & Head, Department of Education,
West Bengal State University, Barasat, 24 Parganas North

Prof (Dr.) Abhijit Kumar Pal addressing the students and the faculty members

The 37th Lecture of Saamyendra Nath Brahmachary Distinguished Lecture Series was organised by Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research, Deoghar on 19th September 2025, on the topic “Role of Guidance Personnel in College Level” by Prof (Dr) Abhijit Kumar Pal, Professor & Head, Department of Education, WBSU, Barasat, 24 Parganas North, West Bengal India.

Prof. Pal began his lecture with the description of the necessity of guidance for children and students in all walks of life including home, neighbourhood, society educational institute including college, school etc. and professional field. He focussed his lecture on the role of guidance personnel in college level. Students face so many problems like educational problems, health problems, career problems etc... He elaborated that guidance is the service from one person to another to solve the problem so that one may establish adjustment with his/her surroundings. Prof. Pal elaborated in detail the role of personnel like principal, teachers, professional counsellors, librarians, demonstrators, hostel wardens, physicians, psychologists and peer group. The role of these personnel is utmost important for the educational development of students so that student can achieve their educational aims and objectives properly. He emphasised that role of principal is important in solving the educational, administrative, personal and professional problems as he heads the institute. Principal as head of institution usually provides facilities like infrastructure, time-table, academic facilities, conducive environment, technical facilities, etc. apart from providing students personal guidance to solve their problems. Similarly, he describes the roles of all the personnel mentioned above. He described some ways so that all personnel can provide their guidance services to the students successfully and sort out the problems of students. Due course of his lecture he showed three videos to have a better understanding of the role of guidance personnel in educational institutions.

The lecture was highly informative as well as interactive as it was in face-to-face mode and was attended by Teachers and Students of Dev Sangha Institute of Professional Studies and Educational Research. The programme was successfully anchored by Nidhi Kiran, a scholar of M.Ed. 2023-25, and was coordinated by Shri Kumud Ranjan Jha, Coordinator, DLS Programme.

